Collect

Blessed Lord,

who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Isaiah 55. 1-11

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

Everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat!

Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which does not satisfy?

Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live.

I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

Seek the Lord while he may be found, call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts; let them return to the Lord, that he may have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

For the word of the Lord:

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 19. 7-14

R:* The heavens are telling the glory of God.

The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom | to the simple.

R:

The statutes of the Lord are right and rejoice the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure and gives light to the eyes. R:

The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever; the judgements of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. R:

More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, sweeter also than honey, dripping from the honeycomb. R:

By them also is your servant taught and in keeping them there is great reward. Who can tell how often they offend? O cleanse me from my secret faults! R:

Keep your servant also from presumptuous sins lest they get dominion over me; so shall I be undefiled, and innocent of great offence. R:

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer. R:

2 Timothy 3.14 – 4.5

A reading from the second letter of Paul to Timothy.

But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

For the word of the Lord:
Thanks be to God.

John 5. 36b-37

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said:

The works that the Father has given me to complete, the very works that I am doing, testify on my behalf that the Father has sent me. And the Father who sent me has himself testified on my behalf. You have never heard his voice or seen his form, and you do not have his word abiding in you, because you do not believe him whom he has sent. 'You search the scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that testify on my behalf. Yet you refuse to come to me to have life. I do not accept glory from human beings. But I know that you do not have the love of God in you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not accept me; if another comes in his own name, you will accept him. How can you believe when you accept glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the one who alone is God? Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father; your accuser is Moses, on whom you have set your hope. If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me. But if you do not believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Prayer over the Gifts

Lord God,
you have opened to us the scriptures:
grant that in the breaking of this bread
we may recognise the Word made flesh, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Post Communion

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry
with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread; who is alive and reigns,
now and for ever. Amen.

“Will you make a poppy in St Asaph Cathedral in memory of a loved one?”

The 100 year anniversary of the end of the First World War is being commemorated in St Asaph Cathedral with a weeping window of poppies made by local school children. We invite you too, to honour the memory of a friend or relative killed in combat by making your own poppy to be part of this display. You will be welcome to the Cathedral on Tuesday 30th October between 10am and 5.30pm, and there will be help on hand to make poppies. It would be useful if you could bring an empty, clean clear plastic bottle with a rounded shoulder for each poppy you want to make. The other materials will be provided. If families wish like to come and view the finished artwork, there will be an open afternoon on Sunday November 4th between 1 and 3pm, and a last minute chance to make a poppy.”
