ENTRANCE HYMN

On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry
announces that the Lord is nigh;
awake, and hearken, for he brings glad tidings of the King of kings.

Then cleansed be every breast from sin;
make straight the way for God within;
prepare we in our hearts a home,
where such a mighty guest may come.

For thou art our salvation, Lord,
our refuge, and our great reward;
without thy grace we waste away,
like flowers that wither and decay.

To heal the sick stretch out thine hand,
and bid the fallen sinner stand;
shine forth, and let thy light restore earth's own true loveliness once more.

All praise, eternal Son, to thee whose advent doth thy people free, whom with the Father we adore
and Holy Ghost for evermore.

Charles Coffin 1676-1749
Tr. John Chandler 1806-1876

THE COLLECT

Father in heaven,
who sent your Son to redeem the world
and will send him again to be our judge:
give us grace so to imitate him in the humility and purity of his first coming that, when he comes again,
we may be ready to greet him
with joyful love and firm faith;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns
with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

ISAIAH 40. I-II

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

Comfort, O comfort my people,
says your God.
Speak tenderly to Jerusalem,
and cry to her
that she has served her term,
that her penalty is paid,
that she has received from the Lord's hand
double for all her sins.

A voice cries out:

'In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord,
make straight in the desert a highway for our God.
Every valley shall be lifted up,
and every mountain and hill be made low;

the uneven ground shall become level,
and the rough places a plain.
Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed,
and all people shall see it together,
for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.’
A voice says, ‘Cry out!’
And I said, ‘What shall I cry?’
All people are grass,
their constancy is like the flower of the field.
The grass withers, the flower fades,
when the breath of the Lord blows upon it;
surely the people are grass.
The grass withers, the flower fades;
but the word of our God will stand for ever.
Get you up to a high mountain,
O Zion, herald of good tidings;
lift up your voice with strength,
O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings,
lift it up, do not fear;
say to the cities of Judah, ‘Here is your God!’
See, the Lord God comes with might,
and his arm rules for him;
his reward is with him,
and his recompense before him.
He will feed his flock like a shepherd;
he will gather the lambs in his arms,
and carry them in his bosom,
and gently lead the mother sheep.

For the word of the Lord:
Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

Please Stand

Earth was waiting, spent and restless,
with a mingled hope and fear,
faithful men and women praying, ‘Surely, Lord, the day is near:
the Desire of all the nations –
it is time he should appear!’

Then the Spirit of the Highest to a virgin meek came down,
and he burdened her with blessing,
and he pained her with renown;
for she bore the Lord's anointed
for his cross and for his crown.

Earth has groaned and laboured for him
since the ages first began,
for in him was hid the secret which through all the ages ran – Son of Mary, Son of David,
Son of God, and Son of Man.

Walter Chalmers Smith 1824-1908

MARK I. 1-8

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

As it is written in the prophet Isaiah,

‘See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you,

who will prepare your way;

the voice of one crying out in the wilderness:

“Prepare the way of the Lord,

make his paths straight” ’,

John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, ‘The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

After the Sermon please turn to the Eucharist booklet for the Affirmation of Faith

OFFERTORY HYMN

Come, thou long-expected Jesus,
born to set thy people free;
from our fears and sins release us.;
let us find our rest in thee.

Israel's strength and consolation,
hope of all the earth thou art;
dear desire of every nation,
joy of every loving heart.

Born thy people to deliver;
born a child and yet a king;
born to reign in us for ever;
now thou gracious kingdom bring.

By thy own eternal Spirit,
rule in all our hearts alone:
by thy all-sufficient merit,
raise us to thy glorious throne.

Charles Wesley 1707-1788

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Lord, here you have nourished us with the food of life;
through our sharing in this holy sacrament teach us to judge wisely earthly things and to yearn for things heavenly.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FINAL HYMN

Long ago, prophets knew Christ would come, born a Jew, come to make all things new,
bear his people's burden,
freely love and pardon.

*Ring bells, ring, ring, ring!
Sing, choirs, sing, sing, sing!
When he comes, when he comes,
who will make him welcome?*

God in time, God in man,
this is God's timeless plan:
he will come, as a man,
born himself of woman,
God divinely human:

Mary, hail! Though afraid,
she believed, she obeyed.
In her womb God is laid:
till the time expected,
nurtured and protected:

Journey ends! Where afar Bethlehem shines, like a star, stable door stands ajar.
Unborn Son of Mary,
Saviour, do not tarry.

*Ring bells, ring, ring, ring!
Sing, choirs, sing, sing, sing!
When he comes, when he comes,
we will make him welcome!*

TODAY'S READINGS

ISAIAH 40. 1-II

No matter how mighty, strong and awesome, our God has the tenderness of one who loves without restraint. God rescued the people of Israel in the wilderness and will again, tenderly and compassionately, rescue us from whatever wilderness in which we find ourselves.

PSALM 85. 8-13

2 PETER 3. 8-15A

By living as well as we can in accordance with Christ's teaching we become a part of the transformation of the world in preparation for the coming of the Lord.

MARK I. 1-8

The coming of the Messiah has been foretold throughout history, but John the Baptist was the first living witness to the imminent event. He was utterly convinced, articulate, persistent and faithful to his calling – a model for us in our time.
